OBITUARIES
Death of Mrs. Grace May Vaughan
Mrs. Grace May Vaughan, wife of Benton H. Vaughan, died Wednesday night at the Sisters hospital. Besides her husband, of the home address, 126 South Third avenue, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ella Hale of Wichita, Kansas, who was with her during her illness.
Mrs. Vaughan was a member of the Royal Neighbors and of the Women of Mooseheart Legion. Funeral services will be conducted by the Royal Neighbors at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Whitney chapel. Burial will be in Springfield, Mo.

Albert O. Erhardt
Albert O. Erhardt, well known in the valley, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 1922 West Van Buren street. Death was caused by double pneumonia. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.
Mr. Erhardt was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Erhardt, who were brutally murdered last June by Moses Gibson, who was hanged in September at San Quentin prison. He was unmarried, and is survived by two brothers, George J. Erhardt, assistant state treasurer, and Jake Erhardt, lieutenant in the Phoenix fire department.
Mr. Erhardt for some time had been an engineer on the Lyman dam project.

Death of Mrs. Nancy Morell
Mrs. Nancy J. Morell died at her home, 730 East Foreland street, yesterday morning following an illness of several weeks' duration. Mrs. Morell was 65 years of age and had lived in Phoenix for the past nine years. She is survived by a daughter in Los Angeles, and a son, C. E. Morell, of Phoenix. Funeral services will be held next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the H. M. Maus chapel, 111 North First avenue. Burial will be in the Greenwood cemetery.

Local Briefs

THREE ASK DECREES—Three suits for decrees of divorce were filed in the superior court yesterday as follows: James Beck from L. C. Beck on grounds of cruelty; Edwina Jefferson from Jake Jefferson on grounds of desertion, and Ida V. Bond for a decree from Tex B. Bond on grounds of cruelty. Mrs. Beck alleges that after her husband struck her she left him. Mrs. Jefferson charges that her husband has failed to provide with the necessities of life. Mrs. Bond alleges that while she was absent from home on a visit her husband entertained other women in their home. He promised to reform, she says, but failed to do so, she charges. He was finally arrested and convicted, she alleges, of grand larceny and selling mortgaged cattle and sentenced to serve a term in the state penitentiary, on September 24, 1919. She asks for the custody of their two children.

ASKS $5000 DAMAGES—Declaring that he suffered injuries to the extent of $5000 because of a gasoline engine explosion, Frank L. Shahan brought suit yesterday for a judgment against Edward W. Samuel and Leon Tolleson. Shahan alleges that he was employed by Samuel and Tolleson in the pumping plant on their ranch near Maricopa. The accident, he claims, took place on August 5, 1920, in which he suffered severe burns and injuries.

I. STEINHARDT HERE—L. Steinhart, representing Cohn, Goldwater and company of Los Angeles, arrived yesterday on a business trip. He is stopping at the Jefferson.

U. D. C. MEETING—The Robert E. Lee chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. H. B. Pryor, 325 North Eighteenth avenue. All members are urged to be present.

DISMISS CHARGE—On motion of Robert Jarrott, assistant county attorney, a charge of uttering a bank check with the intent to defraud filed against John R. Dykes and his wife, May Harmon Dykes, was dismissed yesterday by Justice McKee. They were charged with giving a check for $100 without sufficient funds in the bank to cover it. It was alleged that they failed to make the check good within the five-day limit allowed by the law.

HELD FOR TRIAL—After a hearing of the case yesterday afternoon before Justice McKee, Robert Mayers was held to answer to the superior court on a charge of burglary and the same charge against C. V. French was dismissed. They were charged by the Rev. Edward R. Cooke with entering St. Luke's home on the night of November 9 and taking 11 blankets and three quilts. Mayer, on the stand, declared that French had nothing to do with the affair and the charge against the latter was dismissed. Mayer did not deny taking the articles. Following the hearing, Mayer was committed to the county jail when he failed to furnish a bond of $1000.

WED IN NEW MEXICO—Frank Olsen, proprietor of the Arizona Saddlery, and Mrs. F. A. Olsen, who owns the Hoffman Grill and the Relf hotel at Prescott, stole away from their friends and were married at Lordsburg, New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Olsen are now in Phoenix visiting Mrs. Marian C. Moore of 715 West Washington street, and will continue their honeymoon journey today to their home in Prescott.

TERCENTENARY PROGRAM—The tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims will be celebrated at the Woman's club this evening when a patriotic program will be presented including a presentation of the Courtship of Miles Standish and other interesting features. The event has been carefully planned and every detail of the program will be of exceptional worth while. Dean Scarlett will make an address on "The Pilgrims." The program is open to the public.

SUNFLOWER CLUB—The Sunflower club, the women's auxiliary of the First Spiritual society, will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at 1334 East Willetta street. There will be a review of the golden chain lyceum lessons and instrumental music. The club will hold a bazaar November 30, and all who have articles they wish to donate may leave them at 1334 East Willetta street.

MISSIONARY MEETING—The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church will hold its monthly meeting at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cilla, 1245 North Central avenue. All women of the church are urged to attend.

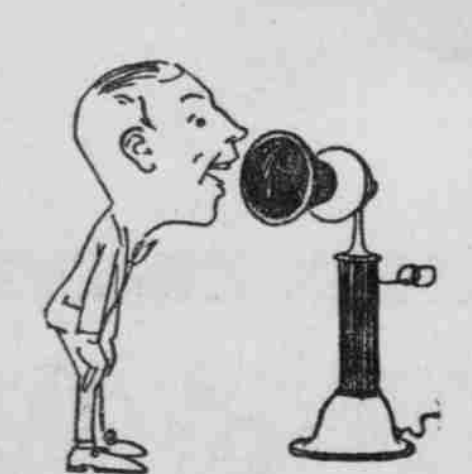

ELECT OFFICERS—The following officers for the ensuing year were elected at a recent meeting of the Phoenix branch of the Arizona Children's Home association: President, Mrs. S. E. McCauley; vice president, Mrs. Roland Dryer; secretary, Mrs. R. S. Cadwallader; treasurer, Mrs. R. P. Rozema. All dues are to be paid to the Rev. Edward R. Cooke.

CHINAMAN SLUGGED—Yee Yee, a Chinaman living at 425 South Second street, was struck over the head with an iron bar wielded by a Mexican yesterday afternoon and rendered unconscious. Yee was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was found his skull was fractured. He probably will live. As the money carried by the Chinaman was untouched, the police are at a loss to account for a motive for the attack. At a late hour last night the assailant had not been found.

RECORD LOAD OF COTTON—Henry Scott eclipsed all previous records yesterday when he delivered to the Southwest Cotton company a load of cotton weighing 17,244 pounds, beating his former record by 289 pounds. Four mules were used in hauling the load from the ranch to town, but only one span of mules, weighing but 1000 pounds each, was used in hauling the load from the scales to its place in the yard. There is considerable rivalry between Mr. Scott and G. R. Tital as to which one shall deliver the largest load of cotton.

POSTPONE INVESTIGATION—The investigation into the affairs of the Hopi Oil company, which was set for today, has been postponed by the corporation commission until December 6 at the request of Judge Sapp, counsel for the company. The investigation was ordered when E. Julian Harbin, a stockholder and stock salesman, complained that the funds were not being used to develop the property to the extent he believed warranted. The stock is held largely by Holbrook and Winslow citizens, many of whom will testify in accordance with the charges made by Harbin. It is understood. The officers of the company are S. G. Mayfield, president, and Thomas McCauley, secretary and treasurer.

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORY—The Arizona Educational Directory recently compiled by C. O. Casa, state superintendent of public instruction, will be received from the printer on Wednesday. It will be mailed to county and city school superintendents and the teaching staff of the state. The directory gives a complete list of the schools of Arizona, the superintendents, principals, teachers and clerks of the school boards, with the addresses and salaries of each. Copies of the school laws are included in the directory.

TO REPRESENT PHOENIX—An announcement was made at the chamber of commerce yesterday that the Hon. Ralph Cameron, United States senator-elect from Arizona, had been appointed to represent Phoenix and Arizona at the sixteenth annual convention of the Rivers and Harbors congress at Washington, D. C., on December 6 and 10.

ADD CAR TO INAUGURAL SPECIAL—Word was received by the chamber of commerce yesterday from Nogales that the border city is contemplating adding another car to the inaugural special carrying the Arizona delegation to the City of Mexico for the inauguration of President-elect Obregon on December 1. The special car from Phoenix will leave, it is announced, at 6:25 p. m. November 25. This car will carry 20 Phoenixians and about 15 more, it is expected, will go with the Nogales delegation.

DANCE TONIGHT—There will be a dance at the Madison Improvement club tonight. A hot tamale lunch will be served. A good time is assured all who attend.

IS RECOVERING—Mrs. E. Hathaway of 1341 Grand avenue, who has been seriously ill, is recovering. She is attended by Dr. Colt Hughes.

HOUSEWARMING AT SCHOOL—The Kentworth school will welcome the patrons of that school this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at a housewarming. Although the school has been occupied for some time, this will be the formal opening. The visit to the school this

WOULD PLAY LOCAL HIGH—The football team of the Martin's Ferry high school, Martin's Ferry, Ohio, is corresponding with the chamber of commerce with reference to arranging a football game between that team and the aggregation of the local high school. In the letter received by the chamber of commerce it is suggested that the expense of bringing the Martin's Ferry team to Phoenix, which will amount to about $2,500, be borne jointly by the chamber of commerce and the high school. The matter has been turned over to W. W. Lawton, vice-president of the chamber of commerce who has particular charge of athletic events, and to the high school authorities.
